

COVENANT OF THE JUDEO-CHRISTIAN ZIONIST CONGRESS

We, the founding members of the First Judeo-Christian Zionist Congress, solemnly commit our time and resources to preserving and defending the Judeo-Christian foundations of Western civilization:

- The sanctity of human life
- Loving your neighbor as yourself
- Individual liberty and freedom of conscience
- Justice, equality under law, and the rule of law
- Moral responsibility and stewardship

These alone are the proven foundations of societies that are flourishing, secure, and prosperous.

In this urgent moment, we unite: Jewish, Christian, and all who cherish these values. We set aside personal agendas to support one another and cooperate fully.

We will speak out and stand together against any political, ideological, or religious movement that undermines these principles.

Trusting in the God of Israel, we are confident that, through steadfast unity and righteous purpose, this cause will prevail.
